The California Sales and Use Tax Answer Book is the key reference source for which practitioners have been searching. Not only is it comprehensive and clear; it also provides extensive citation to important case and statutory law. The varying rates, the changing jurisdictional boundaries, the different tax bases, and the often inconsistent and contradictory interpretations of similarly worded statutes are all covered. The book also includes a chapter on sales tax reforms, particularly the Streamlined Sales Tax Project. Considers miscellaneous legislation relating to wages, minimum wage, hours and conditions of labor, and child labor. Vol. 34

Examines the FHIP from its inception in 1987 through 2006. The goals of this study are to create a history of FHIP, describe its grantees, analyze the types of grants awarded through the program, and analyze the outcomes of cases investigated by grant recipients, especially the comparison of the outcomes of cases referred by the grantees with those referred by others. This is primarily a process study of FHIP based on interviews with FHIP grantee org. Outcomes are reported based on cases that are referred to HUD. The study does not include reviews of cases not referred to HUD and does not assess the efficiency of FHIP or effects of the program. Charts and tables. This is a print on demand report.
