A Survival Guide for Art History Students Sep 27 2020 A Survival Guide for Art History Students is designed to help students succeed in art history courses. The art history classroom is a unique learning environment that most students first experience in college. Survival Guide is sympathetic to this, offering practical instruction and guidance for every moment in students' coursework, from the initial disorientation of their first art history class ("art in the dark") to the challenge of the slide exam. Survival Guide gives practical guidance on how to take notes, write paper assignments, as well as how to study for and take exams. It deals with the kinds of questions that students commonly ask but professors seem hesitant to write about: "Is art history a gut course?", "What in the world do you do with a degree in art history?", "Is 500 BC later or earlier than 190 AD?", and "How can I take notes and look up at slides at the same time?"

Designed for student readers, Survival Guide is written in a familiar and engaging tone. The images discussed and illustrated are primarily those of western art from the ancient to modern eras. By focusing on images that are taught in standard art history survey courses, Survival Guide reinforces and builds upon course materials.

A call-to-action for Democrats, moderate Republicans, and other anti-Trump dissenters, detailing the history of social and political policies, how Obama treated them, how Trump has the power to undermine them, and what people can do to fight back. The stunning election of Donald J. Trump rocked an already divided America and left scores of citizens, including the nearly sixty-five million voters who supported Hillary Clinton, feeling bereft and powerless. Now, Gene Stone, author of The Bush Survival Bible, offers invaluable guidance and concrete solutions the resistance can use to make a difference in this serious call-to-arms—showing them how to move from anger and despair to activism against the Trump presidency and its potentially lasting effects on our democracy. You may think of this as merely a beginning, an introduction or a first step on the prepping pathway. But, this guide also aims at dispelling some of the rumors and myths about preppers in general. Many of the myths that surround the prepper community are caused by the prepper television shows. While these are entertaining and do sometimes contain some good hints and tips, it is important to remember that these are just television programs with editing and careful selection. The producers purposely pick the people who would be deemed the most extreme or perhaps the "nuttiest" because they are the ones that make good television. The real preppers are the ones that are not doing stunts for TV. They are the ones with the right mindset and mental attitude and they are doing these things quietly for their families, not parading their choices for everyone to see.
