1 Timothy is one of the more controversial documents in the New Testament. For years, critical scholars have rejected Pauline authorship, highlighted the apparent misogynistic quality of the text, and argued against any coherence in the letter. Jeon takes a fresh look at the letter, incorporating many recent advancements in NT scholarship. In detail he demonstrates the macro- and micro- chiastic arrangement of the entire letter and explains how the presumed first-century audience would have heard and responded to an oral performance of the letter. In doing so, Jeon offers a fresh challenge to more popular ways of (mis)understanding the letter and points a way forward for appropriating the letter both in academia and in the church. Lex Luthor launches Guardian Defense Platforms into Earth's orbit to protect the world from alien menaces, but when something goes wrong with the launch, the Man of Steel and his friends investigate Lex as the cause of the problem.

Advances in Molecular Toxicology, Volume 11, features the latest advances in the subspecialties of the broad area of molecular toxicology. This series details the study of the molecular basis of toxicology by which a vast array of agents encountered in the human environment, and produced by the human body, manifest themselves as toxins. The book is not strictly limited to documenting these examples, but also covers the complex web of chemical and biological events that give rise to toxin-induced symptoms and disease. The new technologies that are being harnessed to analyze and understand these events are also reviewed by leading experts in the field. Provides cutting-edge reviews by leading workers in the discipline Includes in-depth dissection of the molecular aspects that are of interest to a broad range of scientists, physicians and any student in the allied disciplines Presents leading-edge applications of technological innovations in chemistry, biochemistry and molecular medicine Were the military and the FAA really that incompetent? Were our intelligence-gathering agencies really in the dark about 9/11? How could so much go wrong at once, in the world's strongest and most technologically sophisticated country? Both the government and the mainstream media have tried to portray the 9/11 truth movement as led by people who can be dismissed as "conspiracy theorists." This volume shows this caricature to be untrue. Coming from different academic disciplines as well as from different parts of the world, the authors are united in the conviction that the official story about 9/11 is a huge deception manufactured to extend Imperial control at home and abroad. America is the leading narrative history because students love to read it. Additional coverage of immigration enhances the timeliness of the narrative. important papers, each the subject of a new commentary by Professor Cox. Angel, a reformed vampire cursed with a soul, is tormented by a vision linking his shameful past to something very big--and very bad--that is coming. As Angel and his friend Fred begin trying to solve the mystery, the goddess Illyria gives Angel some insight and incentive. Then she really gets involved, and Angel discovers that it might be possible to change the future by changing the past. Taken by Illyria, Angel and Fred find themselves in Illyria's ancient past. The goddess claims it is a mistake, but when she discovers just when they are--in the middle of a battle between her past self and another god--she's not ready to leave without attempting to change the battle's outcome. With no choice, Angel must help both past and present Illyria in a battle for their people and their land...
