This revised and expanded version of Eugene H. Peterson's classic for modern pilgrims who want to learn to live in communion with God now includes the Songs of Ascents in The Message translation, as well as a new epilogue. You're only one step away from the adventure of your life. In this abridgement of his bestselling book, If You Want to Walk on Water You Have to Get Out of the Boat, John Ortberg invites you to do with God's help what you could never do on your own—step out of your comfort zone and step out on the risky waters of faith. If you do, you'll find that Jesus is waiting to meet you in ways that will change you forever, deepening your character and your trust in God. The experience is terrifying. It's thrilling beyond belief. It's everything you'd expect of someone worthy to be called Lord. The choice is yours to know him as only a water-walker can, aligning yourself with God's purpose for your life in the process. All my books can be read online free at wayneodonnell.com. "Freely you have received, freely give" (Mt. 10:8). This booklet is included in and comprises one section of my book Physical and Spiritual Salvation: Justification, Sanctification, Glorification, the Messianic Kingdom, & Ezekiel's Temple in Ezekiel 40-48, Matthew, Romans, & 1 John. John wrote about "the Logos [word, logic] of life" (1 Jn. 1:1), and his method is to use logic. John gives us one formal logic proposition statement after another, often stated both negatively and positively, to prove that "All Christians and only Christians walk in Faith, Obedience, and Love - no exceptions." John shows it's impossible to be in union with God, which all Christians are, meaning those who have been justified, and not have that result in a walk of faith, obedience, and love. "God is light, and ... no darkness. If we say we have union with him [claim to be a Christian], and walk in darkness, we lie [our claim to be a Christian is false], and we don't do the truth [we aren't Christians]. But if we [claim to have union with him and] walk in the light, as he is in the light, we [demonstrate we] have union [not only with him but also] with one another [our claim is true], and the blood of Jesus Messiah his Son cleanses us from all sin [we are justified, i.e. Christians]," 1 Jn. 1:5-7. Faith: "If we say, 'We have no sin [i.e. are self righteous],' we deceive ourselves [our claim is false], and the truth is not in us [we aren't Christians]. [But] if we confess we are sinners [trust in God's provision of forgiveness of sin in salvation], he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins [our claim to be forgiven is true], and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness [justification] [we are Christians]," 1 Jn. 1:8-9. 7 Obedience: "He that says, 'I know him [i.e. claims to be a Christian],' and doesn't keep his commandments is a liar [his claim to be a Christian is false], and the truth is not in him [he's not a Christian]. But whoever [claims to know him and] keeps his word, in him truly is the love of God perfected [we are Christians]: hereby know we that we are in him [we are Christians]," 1 Jn. 2:4-5. Love: "He that says he is in the light [claims to be a Christian], and hates his brother, is in darkness [his claim to be a Christian is false] even until now [he never was a Christian]. He that loves his brother abides in the light [he is a Christian], and there is none occasion of stumbling in him [and will be a Christian forever]," 1 Jn. 2:9-10. One benefit of understanding this is that we can know who is a Christian, versus just claiming to be a Christian and going to church, etc. "As you have heard that antichrist will come, even now are there many antichrists [all who claim to be Christians but aren't]," 1 Jn. 2:18. "Hereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error," 1 Jn. 4:6. A second benefit is for our own assurance of salvation. "These things have I written to you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that you may know that you have eternal life," 1 Jn. 5:13. But the greatest benefit of understanding this, and the main reason John wrote, was so we would have full joy. "These things we write to you so that your joy can be full," 1 Jn. 1:4. If all Christians always walk in the light, and we know we have believed the gospel and received justification and thus are Christians, then we know that we always do and always will walk in the light, and that is a tremendous source of joy! Not understanding what we already have will not prevent us from having some joy anyway, since it is one of the fruits of the indwelling Spirit (Gal. 5:22), but only understanding what we have provides full joy. Obedience is something that is often easier to talk about than it is to walk out. In this book Rodney explores various elements of obedience and the lessons he has learned in his own walk of obedience. There are many aspects of obedience that are difficult and will require each of us to submit our will to His. As we learn to walk in obedience, however, we find ourselves also walking in the blessing and favor of God. Find encouragement and strength for faith in the life of a mother of seven living behind the Iron Curtain. Her beautiful life of obedience and wonderful example of faith are witnesses of her close relationship with God. The Walking with God series of studies encourages disciples to dig deeper in building their personal relationship with God whilst, at the same time, challenging them to nurture a missionary mind set which is to see people as Jesus sees them with a heart to demonstrate His love through various means of service. This book contains all the teaching notes as well as lots of hints and tips for leading a small group through the third set of studies in the series - Walking with God in Relationship - Soul & Strength. The aim is to build on the foundation already laid in previous studies by considering how to overcome the battle waging in our mind and emotions in order that we might walk meekly every day in submission and obedience to God. It is hoped that as disciples enjoy gathering and growing together regularly they will want to carry on in their journey of discipleship by completing other Bible studies in the Walking with God series. The end-goal is that some will become effective disciple-makers themselves. In this generation of fast life; fast food, fast technology, busy work schedules, and abundance of social media, truly how many people would find time to talk to an invisible God? Does silence and meditation exist anymore just to hear God's gentle voice, listen and act upon His command in faith? "Walking by Faith in Obedience to God" is a book that recounts the life of a patriarch and father of the faithful, Abraham. His life was filled with complex puzzles to solve, but his faith and trust in the Almighty God helped him solve them all in humility and obedience as he journeyed to the promised land. His willingness to perform the ultimate sacrifice of his only son Isaac is undoubtedly the most strikingly dramatic example of faith and highest act of obedience to the Almighty God. As a result, he was justified and declared righteous in the sight of God (Romans 3:28). Thus, he set a vivid example which affirms that in every generation, it is possible for God's elect (Children) (Sons) (Heirs) to walk by faith in obedience to the Almighty God who calls us to do His will according to His riches in His only begotten son Christ Jesus. We seem always to be failing! In The School of Obedience, Andrew Murray reveals not only what God demands, but also how obedience to those demands is possible through Christ's perfect example. Basic, practical steps toward a life in line with the will of God. Who are enemies of the cross, and who are defenders of the faith? In Defense of the Cross of Christ is a wake-up call to sleeping Christians who keep hitting the conviction snooze button of God's command for obedience and holiness through His grace that compels us and equips us to personify Jesus in selfless love. In Defense of the Cross of Christ is an uncompromising warning to church leaders who have invaded the church with humanistic thinking and become stumbling blocks for babes in Christ while deceiving others to follow their pernicious ways of iniquity and to rejoice in it. Over a decade in preparation, In Defense of the Cross of Christ is now ready for you. The question is, are you ready for it? “I know of no other current author who addresses the issue of iniquity among the body of Christ as clearly and concisely as it is dealt with in this work. Just as importantly, I testify that the words written have the testimony of the Spirit by the demonstration of a life lived by the principles here taught.” —Corey Dawes, Father's Honor Ministry “With passion and conviction, Steven has presented an excellent defense of the cross. Through Scripture and his insight, the reader is drawn to move away from elementary teachings of Scripture and toward deeper water by allowing the love of Christ to guide every decision of their lives. In Defense of the Cross of Christ is intended for slow digestion so the reader may obtain the full nutrients it contains.” —Kevin Clouse, pastor and writer, First Church of God Obedience is something that we all may have struggled with at some point in our walk with God. This book is written to testify, exhort and guide each person who has a heart to obey the Father. In this book, Salma shares from the Bible as well as real-life experiences about the journey of obedience that the Lord Jesus has called us to walk in. Are you seeking a job, marriage, financial, child, or any other breakthrough? Is it practical and possible to obey God in today's pragmatic world? Why is God testing me? What next? Are you finding it a struggle to obey God? Are there really any returns for obedience? How do I teach my children to obey God? Answers to these questions and many more through Scripture and real testimonies of people living in today's times! She wants faith, hope, and love. She wants help and healing. She wants to hear and be heard, to see and be seen. She wants things set right. She wants to know what is true—not partly true, or sometimes true, or almost true. She wants to see Truth itself, face-to-face. But here, now, these things are all cloudy. Hope is tinged with hurt. Faith is shaded by doubt. Lesser, broken things masquerade as love. How does she find something permanent when the world around her is always changing, when not even she can stay the same? And if she finds it, how does she hold on? She Reads Truth tells the stories of two women who discovered, through very different lives and circumstances, that only God and His Word remain unchanged as the world around them shifted and slipped away. Infused with biblical application and Scripture, this book is not just about two characters in two stories, but about one Hero and one Story. Every image points to the bigger picture—that God and His Word are true. Not because of anything we do, but because of who He is. Not once, not occasionally, but right now and all the time. Sometimes it takes everything moving to notice the thing that doesn't move. Sometimes it takes telling two very different stories to notice how the Truth was exactly the same in both of them. For anyone searching for a solid foundation to cling to, She Reads Truth is a rich and honest Bible-filled journey to finally find permanent in a world that's passing away. A warm, inspirational devotional from the classic writer that traces obedience from Genesis to Revelation. God has a work for you to do on earth. He has a special part for you to play. He has a significant place that only you can fill. But, before you can move into that place, you have to learn how to walk confidently with the Lord every day. In this insightful book, Gloria Copeland shares the first essential step in establishing your daily journey with God: Learning how to have a willing and obedient heart. Take a walk through the Word and learn specifically how to: - Walk in newness of life-and throw aside the ways of the world - Bear real fruit by living in daily communion with the Lord - Be led by the prompting of the Holy Spirit - Pray the perfect will of God - Make the supernatural natural in your life Discover the path to a life of obedience today...and learn what it really means to Walk With God. Written from the heart and in easy to understand language "The Minister's Life of Obedience," will inspire you and challenge you to greater obedience in your daily walk with God. Though we often hear about the "gay problem" today, there is an even deeper problem in the church today--one that we often overlook. The call to follow Christ is a call to costly obedience for all, not just for gay Christians. Far too often, the church has elevated homosexuality above other sins and required a costly obedience from gays that it is unwilling to demand of others. And yet, the answer is not to weaken the demands of obedience. Instead, gay Christians who make the difficult choice to align their lives with the biblical view of sexuality are a gift to the church, reminding all of us that spiritual growth and maturity is costly. There is a price to pay in following Christ and devoting our lives to the call of the gospel, and it is one that we all must pay--gay and straight Christians alike. Through the stories and struggles of gay Christians who are reorienting their lives around the costly obedience required to follow Christ, Mark Yarhouse and Olya Zaporozhets call the church to reorient as well, leaving behind the casual morality that is widespread today to pursue the path of radical discipleship. Unlike any other book on homosexuality and the church, this is a call to examine your life and consider what God is asking you to lay down to take up your cross and follow him. This book about the Book of Daniel is excellent for small-group studies as well as adult and teen Bible-study classes. "Victory Through Obedience" is an eight-week journey with Daniel and his friends as they make choices to follow God no matter what the cost. Walk with them as they were able to make choices to obey God no matter the consequences and live in victory over the obstacles they faced. Each week's study then offers personal application into the Biblical truths faced during their walk through these obstacles. Written in easy-to-understand language so that everybody can understand the truths in the Book of Daniel. Highly recommended book for either self study or group study. What if the next big step God wants you to take is actually small? Stepping into the assignments the Lord has for us and pursuing the dreams He's placed in our hearts can feel overwhelming and exhilarating all at the same time. But walking in His will begins with our daily obedience to Him. Lysa TerKeurst knows what it means to walk by faith and encourages you to discover the deeply personal truths of God's Word for your calling. Identify one area where you can draw a line in the sand and take a step toward something new. Be prepared for God to use your small steps of faith to unleash His work and wonder in your life. No matter what God has called you to, you can take this first step! For men who feel half alive ... half faithful ... half obedient ... half the totally committed Christian they long to be ... men's movement pioneer Patrick Morley offers the motivation and inspiration for finding the abundant life they desire. Writing straight from the heart, Morley invites men to take a soul-searching look at how obedience to Christ in every area of life leads to a richer, deeper walk with God. In seventy-five short chapters, Morley covers topics like truth, prayer, the nature of God, the person of Jesus, materialism, eternal life, surrender, servanthood, expectations, power, suffering, holiness, character, and other important details that factor into wholehearted, biblical Christianity. Our story is unpolished, transparent, and comical. We are not perfect and have no intention to pretend we are. We are followers. We are still learning and sometimes learning happens through making mistakes. Our story is full of them. We Will Follow will point out the importance of the local church. The importance of surrounding yourself with other believers. I have a unique perspective with my unchurched background. I pray seeing faith from this perspective will help those in the church relate differently towards those that did not grow up in the church. We Will Follow is not just our story. It's a story about God and how He has walked with us along the way. Each step of obedience was important in leading us in the right direction. Obedience is simply doing what He says and finding victory in the faith that follows. Obedience will lead to faith. It always does. There is a cost to walk with an anointing such as that of Prophetess, Minister, Teacher, and Evangelist Carrie Machell Burks. Recognizing Truth - the infallible, uncensored, undeniable Word of God and surrendering your life, your very existence, your finite mind to walk in Obedience to what the Truth says... allows you to Love unconditionally as Christ has loved the church. Author Carrie Machell Burks, from a child to adulthood, is not perfect, but indeed has walked a surrendered life in submission to her heavenly Father. She is one that has answered the call wherever it may take or cost her to herald the Word of Truth. As you read this work, experience love afresh from the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Allow it to "re-member" you in your spirit, soul and body. Choose daily to become more of a doer than just a hearer of the Word, the Truth. Vanessa Washington Slater As I Went is the personal story of one woman as she journeyed through the path of obedience, ultimately receiving the favor and blessings of God at every orchestrated and predestined turn. This book visits the physical, spiritual, emotional, and mental areas of our life that God often had to restructure because of the weight of everyday struggles and battles we've allowed to taint and damage His original creation. This inspirational work will prick the emotions of laughter, empathy, sympathy, determination, love, and confidence within each reader. Take a moment to allow this read to take you to a new level in your faith walk. This book is the first of others that will catapult its audience into a new dimensional mindset for a new era of believers. Are you spiritually tired? Many Christians have a deep desire to "turn the corner" in their walk with Jesus. Some don't know where to start, others are held back by the past, and still others are blinded or calloused by sin. King David, the man after God's own heart, experienced this very thing, and in Worn Out by Obedience he is presented as a spiritual mentor. David is both flawed and on fire. He is the person we are and the person we want to be. In studying his extended stay in Ziklag (1 Samuel 27-30), readers will see how God often molds our hearts in seasons of brokenness, loneliness, and disappointment—sometimes even in our disobedience. If you are spiritually weary, discouraged, or exhausted, Worn Out by Obedience will help you to keep going—or start moving. You'll learn the signs of spiritual fatigue and how to avoid them. You'll see that God uses all our experiences—good and bad—to form Christ in us. And you'll remember God's great grace of rescue, recovery, and restoration. Since Eugene Peterson first wrote this spiritual formation classic nearly forty years ago, hundreds of thousands of Christians have been inspired by Peterson's prophetic and pastoral wisdom and the call to deeper discipleship found in the Songs of Ascents (Psalms 120-134). This special commemorative edition includes a new preface taken from Leif Peterson's eulogy at his father's memorial service. The Insanity of Obedience Bible Study Book includes small-group experiences for six sessions, weekly individual-study opportunities, applicable Scripture, "How to Use This Study," and tips for leading a group. How do we begin to walk and work with God, especially in dangerous places? Based on the documentary The Insanity of God, this Bible study presents missionary Nik Ripken sharing true stories of people who are suffering for the name of Jesus. This study is an invitation to open your heart, your mind, and your eyes to the realities of walking with Jesus in difficult places. Engage with Scripture and see what it means to be a true follower of Jesus, not just someone who believes certain truths. Discover the answers to key missiological and theological questions about living sacrificially for the cause of Christ. Believers play a significant role in God's divine purpose. Observe how Christians all over the world are not only surviving but also thriving in the midst of persecution. Session Content: 1) Nations This session deals with God's command to be on mission and our response to His command. The Bible is to be lived out in the present active tense. 2) Persecution This session explores faith in persecution and suffering. Faith grows in families and communities, from a single believer to small groups of believers to succeeding generations. 4) Growth This session deals with the dynamics of healthy growth. 5) Victory This session describes and celebrates the miracle of victorious living through an enduring faith--especially in hostile environments. 6) Church This session is a summary and personal call to action for individuals, groups, and churches to join God's mission--no matter how insane obedience may look. Why? Because Jesus is worth it. And where is Brian, anyway? The cops are looking for Andy's allegedly unfaithful/possibly homicidal beau, who hasn't been seen since the party. But Andy can't believe her upstanding lover is a murdering fool, and she's determined to prove it—though she may end up with a lot more broken than just her heart.

What does walking in obedience look like when the world shows you that you do not need to be obedient to anything or anyone but yourself? How do you set aside your own wants and longings to pursue the life that Jesus is calling you to follow? Samuel said "Obedience is better than sacrifice". When I first read that, it took me a while to understand the reference. We are not from a culture of sacrifice. But over time, I came to realize that it was a biblical reference. When you sinned, you needed to present a sacrifice. Jesus became the ultimate sacrifice. However, what Samuel meant was, if you walked in obedience, you would have no need to to make sacrifices to God for forgiveness. It was better to obey than to need forgiveness. What is God asking you to walk in obedience about? I promise you; it is not restricting. There is freedom in surrender. It is freeing as you see how God shows up and walks right along with you and shows you the way He would have you go. Will you join me in "Walking in Obedience"? Walking in the FOG serves as a reminder that life is hard, but that God uses pain and our obedience to His Word to bring about His purpose and His plan. You can choose to walk in the favor of God knowing that He guides your footsteps, or you can simply walk in a fog without clearly seeing your way—the choice is yours. Maybe you've struggled with your identity in Christ and would like to know how to overcome the issues and pains of the past. The answer to this question can be found by reading Walking in the FOG. This book doesn't shy away from things that often hold us back from experiencing all God has for us, but shows the readers how they can take control of their thoughts, emotions, and voices to usher in God's unmerited favor and grace.
